ENGLISH STORIES

The Eagle and the Crow

An eagle had his nest high up on a mountain wall. At the foot of the mountain, there was a tree in which lived a crow. One day the eagle swooped down from his nest and picked up a lamb from the earth. Then he flew high up and returned to his nest. The crow saw that the eagle had performed the wonderful feat in one go. He thought, "If the eagle can perform this feat, why can't I?" so one day the crow flew as high as he could. Then he swooped down with great force. But instead of landing upon a lamb, he dashed his head against the ground and his beak cracked. That was the end of him.

Moral: Thoughtless imitation is foolish.

The Poor Girl and The King

Once upon a time, there was a kind king. He prided himself on being a good king. One day, he was going along a street. There he saw a girl who looked very poor and sad. She told the king that her mother was very ill and she had no money to buy medicines for her. So, she was going to sell her clothes. After some enquiry, the king came to know that her father was an officer in king's army. He had died fighting for the king. The king felt greatly ashamed. He took the girl to the palace and gave her lot of money.

Moral: True kindness is shown by deed, not by words.
